<h2 id="Exercise-1">Exercise 1</h2>

In [36]:
```
first_number =100
second_number =29

sum_result= (first_number + second_number)* 3 squared_result =sum_result 2

print("The result of the calculation was:") print(squared_result)
```

```
The result of the calculation was:
149769
```

<h2 id="Excercise-2">Excercise 2</h2>

In [37]:
```
name = input("Name:")
year_of_birth =input("Year of birth:")
age =input("Age:")

password = year_of_birth[-2] + name[:3] + str(int(age) 2)

print("Password: " + password)
```

```
Password: 0Mou361
```

<h2 id="Excercise-3">Excercise 3</h2>

In [38]:
```
first_number =int(input("First number: ")) second_number =int(input("Second number: ")) first_even =first_number % 2 ==0 second_even =second_number % 2==0

if first_even and second_even:
    print("Both numbers are even.") elif first_even or second_even:
    print("One of the numbers is even.")
else:
    print("Both numbers are odd.")
```

```
Both numbers are odd.
```

<h2 id="Excercise-4">Excercise 4</h2>

number = int(input("Give an integer:")) total = sum(range(number)) print("The sum was:" +str(total))

<h2 id="Excercise-5">Excercise 5</h2>

In [39]:
```
import random

def play_round(player_name):
    target = random.randint(0,10)
    tries = 0
    while True:
```

```
        guess = int(input(f"{player_name}:"))
        tries += 1
        if guess == target:
            print(f"That's right! Number of tries:{tries}") return tries
        elif guess < target:
            print("try a greater number.")
        else:
            print("Try a smaller number.") player1_tries =play_round("Player1")

print()
player2_tries = play_round("Player2")

print()
if player1_tries < player2_tries:
   print("Winner is Player1") elif player2_tries < player1_tries:
   print("Winner is Player2")
else:
   print("It's a tie!")
```

```
Try a smaller number.
Try a smaller number.
That's right! Number of tries:3

try a greater number.
try a greater number.
That's right! Number of tries:3

It's a tie!
```

In [ ]: